4. NOTES

4.1 Principles for effective consultation

To the extent that it is practicable (refer Section 3A (1) of the Fisheries Act 1995), the following consultation principles apply to decisions made by the Minister, Secretary (or delegate), which affect the use and conservation of Victoria's fisheries resources:

- a) That the purpose of the consultation and the consultation process are clear, open, timely and transparent;
- b) That the level of consultation reflects the likely impact of decisions on persons and fisheries resources;
- c) That the consultation process is adequately resourced;
- d) That the consultation process flexible and designed to take into account the number and type of persons and/or sector groups to be consulted and their ability to contribute to the process; and
- e) That the consultation process should involve consideration of representative advice which represents the views and values of the persons represented from appropriate sector groups including:
 - Commercial wild-catch fishing
 - Recreational fishing
 - Aquaculture operators
 - Aboriginal fishers/communities
 - Conservation interests (as applicable)

The consultation process should consider expert advice from the most appropriate provider/s (as applicable) and any expert advice obtained during the consultation process should be made available to persons participating in the consultation process.

4.2 Statutory consultation under Section 3A (2) of the Fisheries Act 1995

Matters that have previously required consultation in accordance with the Fisheries Act 1995 (the Act) will continue to require consultation. These matters are now consolidated in the Act under Section 3A (2); these are:

- a) a decision by the Minister to declare or amend a management plan under Part 3;
- b) a decision by the Secretary to vary a class of fishery licence under section 54(1)(c);
- c) a decision under section 54(1)(d) by the Secretary to vary or revoke a condition imposed by the Secretary, or to impose a new condition, on a class of fishery licence;
- d) a decision by the Minister to give, revoke or amend a direction on matters relating to the management of fisheries or zones in a fishery under section 61;

- e) a decision by the Minister to make, revoke or amend a quota order in relation to a fishery under section 64, 64A, 66C or 66D;
 - f) a decision by the Minister to make, revoke or amend an order declaring sub-zones in a quota fishery under section 64AB or 66E;
 - g) a decision by the Minister to appoint a person as a member of the Commercial Fisheries Licensing Panel under section 132(2)(c) or 132(2)(d);
 - h) a decision by the Minister to nominate a person to be appointed as a member of the Licensing Appeals Tribunal under section 135(2);
 - i) decisions relating to the making and content of regulations in respect of royalties and levies imposed in accordance with sections 150 and 151;
 - j) decisions by the Minister relating to priorities for the disbursement of funds that may be paid out of the Recreational Fishing Licence Trust Account under section 151B;
 - k) a decision by the Minister to make a fisheries notice under section 152(1).

4.3 Statutory consultation NOT required

Statutory consultation is not required in relation to the following decisions—

- a) decisions which are specific to an individual licence or permit, the holder of a licence or permit or a person acting on behalf of a holder of a licence or permit; and
- b) reviewable decisions within the meaning of Section 137 of the Fisheries Act 1995.
